

Sections B1–B2

Father and mother

My father is a man.
My mother is not a man.
I am with my father and mother.
I help my mother and father.

Go

I go to bed.
I go to school.
I do work at school.
Do you go to bed?
Do you go to school?
Do you work at school?
Do you work in bed?
Do you go to bed at school?

Our beds

My bed is in my room.
We go to sleep in our bed.
The sun comes up.
We get up.
We make our bed.
My mother can help Jim to make his bed.
My father can help me to make my bed.
Lin can help her sister to make her bed.

➡ Use similar sentences using different names. Have students use her for a female and his for a male.

Going to school on the bus

It is time to go to school.
We work at school.
It is time to go home.
We must go to the bus stop on time.
The bus will not wait.
Tom can run to the bus stop.
The bus is at the bus stop.
Tom did not get to the bus stop on time.
The bus will go now.
Tom can not go on the bus.
He will wait for the next bus.

Kay and Peter

➡ Remind students that names begin with a capital letter.
My name is Kay. I am six.
I go to school on the bus.
My big brother will help me get on the bus.
His name is Peter. He is ten.

Will

I will play.
I will play with you.
We will play with the cat.
Will you play with me?
Will a cat go to bed?
Will a cat go to school?

School

Jess went to school.
She did good work in her book.
The teacher took a look at her book.
'It is good work,' he said.

Sky, sun

The sun is in the sky.
It is a hot day.
We will not play in the sun to-day.
We will stay in the school room.

True or not true

➡ Have students respond true or not true to these sentences:

A man can fly.
A bird can fly.
A pig can fly.
A bee can fly.
A bed can run.
You live at school.
A bee can sting.
A dog can sting.
We have six books at school.

Questions

Is it hot in the night time?
Is the sun in the sky in the day time?
Is the sun in the sky at night?
Do you have a cat?
Do you have a dog?
Do you have a bird?
Is the bird cute?
Do you love your cat?
Can the sun stop?

Read and draw

A cute toy
A big tree
A good dog
A bird in a nest
Two eggs in a nest