

Section C7

Back

The yard is at the back of the house.
Emily sits at the back of the room.
Do you sit at the back of the bus?

Another meaning for back

You have my book.
Will you please give it back to me?
I have your chalk. I will draw a dog.
Then I will give your chalk back.

How much?

How much rain did we have?
How much juice do you want?
How much work did you do?
How much time do you spend at home?

The bad dog

The dog has my mother's bag.
'Give it back, give it back,' yells Mother.
'It has all of my things in it.
You can not have my bag.'

Take, took

David took his bag to school.
Do you take other things to school?
Lucy took her pencil.
Do you take lunch to school?
How will you go to school?
Will you walk? Will a bus take you?
Will your father take you in a car?

Neck

I have something on my neck.
It is a necklace.
My neck is good. It helps me.
If I have no neck, I can not turn my head.

The day Amy was sick

Amy was in bed last week. She was sick.
She was not well.
Logan went to Amy's house.
He took some flowers to Amy.
'I know you do not feel well,' said Logan.
'I think these flowers will help you to feel happy.'
'Thank you,' said Amy. 'They are very nice.
I will look at the flowers and think about you.
I will think about how kind you are.'

➡ Answer these questions.

Was Logan kind to Amy?
Was Logan sick?
Was Amy sick?
How did Amy feel when she got the flowers from Logan?
Did Logan think about Amy?
Did Amy thank Logan?

Things we think about

Mother thinks about our trip.
Father thinks about his garden.
Ryan thinks about his new toy.
Hazel thinks about her school work.
Dan thinks about how he can make a cake.
We think about things, then we do them.

Hard and soft

A rock is hard. A pen is hard. A desk is hard.
A sock is not hard. It is soft.
A baby's hands are soft.
Find things in your room that are hard.
Find things in your room that are soft.

Do you do this?

Do you thank your mother or father for cooking your food?
Do you thank your teacher for helping you?
Do you think about how you can help your mother or father if they have too much work?

A little dog called 'Socks'

Patrick has a little brown and white dog.
The dog has white on her feet and legs.
It looks like she has two white socks on.
Patrick named his dog 'Socks'.
Do you think 'Socks' is a good name for Patrick's dog?